Post	Team Facilitator
Salary	£28,961 per annum
Responsible to	Services Manager

Enable is a dynamic, forward-looking and vibrant charity dedicated to ensuring an equal society where everyone has the right to live, work and participate as active and respected citizens in the communities of their choice.

Enable Cares provide human rights-driven, self-directed social care for more than 1,100 people across 27 local authority areas in Scotland. We do this through our industry-leading PA model.

Primary Job Purpose

The role of Team Facilitator is highly customer focused on the people we support, their families and the team members who support them. You will be part of a management team and have leadership responsibility for a designated number of individual services working with all stakeholders.

As an effective Team Facilitator, you will demonstrate a sound understanding of the Personalisation agenda, Self-Directed Support and the concept of choice and control. You will understand the need to keep decision making as close to the individuals we support as possible, whilst being clear on the level of decision making appropriate to your own role. You will develop an in-depth understanding of each person and use this to support people to achieve enhanced lifestyles and the pursuit of clear identified outcomes. Through building the capacity of direct support teams; you will be responsible for ensuring the development and quality of service designs and supporting strategies, for monitoring and review and ensuring associated processes are in place.

You will take responsibility for the design, and facilitative management of each person's team to support the achievement of individual outcomes. You will demonstrate and model a high standard of practice whilst monitoring and supporting the development of direct support team members

Main Duties and Responsibilities:

- Within the support services you manage, you will ensure that each person we support has the opportunity to develop and work towards a life of their choosing. This vision will incorporate a pro-active and supportive approach for the person's life now and in the future. This approach should be underpinned by a strong commitment to maximising independence, participation and community inclusion.
- You will ensure that each individual we support has an identified support team designated to them, ensuring the involvement of the person and their family/significant others in a personalised recruitment and matching process.

- You will facilitate the development of a personalised service design and detailed support strategies through a robust planning process ensuring maximum involvement of the person, their family /significant others and professionals involved in their life.
- You will ensure that detailed and robust Risk Assessments and safe systems of working enshrined within supporting strategies are in place where relevant and necessary. You will ensure that team members are clear on how to lead the decision making process in line with our framework which ensures that all decisions are working towards supporting the person's life and outcomes.
- You will take the lead on the planning and review process, involving all stakeholders including the person, their significant others, professionals involved and the team members as agreed with the person we support.
- You will support each person's team members to link with formal agencies such as Social Work, Housing and Health professionals as well to build on their knowledge of informal community assets and people that can assist in enhancing the person's quality of life and outcomes.
- You will oversee and lead on the Individual Service Fund for each supported individual ensuring that budgets are utilised accurately and creatively to meet outcomes and be available for relevant stakeholders' to monitor accordingly. This will include building the capacity of the support team to have full awareness of the budget and become involved in the budgetary management process.

Line Management Responsibilities:

- You will motivate and lead each staff team actively to promote community engagement, the building of new opportunities and the growth of natural networks in line with the person's outcomes.
- You will adopt and encourage an ambitious approach towards the aim of ultimately reducing the paid support in a person's life based on maximising natural support opportunities. This will involve facilitating a process of individual and collective team work towards these aims.
- You will work in a way that demonstrates and promotes a facilitative management style; this to include building the capacity of the support team to maximise their skills and abilities to deliver on outcomes.
- You will regularly provide undertake formal and informal supervision and support to Personal Assistants and undertake annual appraisals.
- In collaboration with our Learning & Development Team, you will support and deliver our vision to up-skill all staff to maximise their understanding of their roles and responsibilities. This will include identifying and facilitating learning opportunities to ensure that our Personal Assistants have the skills to deliver on providing high quality personalised services to the people they are contracted to support.
- You will work with Personal Assistants to identify both individual and team learning and development needs. This will include the management of the local training plan which will encompass mandatory training as well as bespoke training in line with individual need. You will have delegated responsibility in ensuring that access to training is planned and that training records are accurate and up to date.

- You will recognise the importance of modelling and day to day learning in staff development and the delivery of quality services.
- You will ensure that training plans are individual to each team member and are matched to the person/people they support ensuring effective and efficient use of individual service funds.
- To ensure that local teams have up to date knowledge and understanding of Enable's policies and procedures and the associated implications for practice.
- To support teams to manage effective staffing processes e.g. the allocation of annual leave, adequate levels of cover for both emergency and planned leave, monitoring and notifying of sick leave and any staffing issues that arise.
- To work closely with the Human Resources Team to maintain positive employee relations and good practice.

Responsibilities for Learning and Development

- You will ensure that team members have knowledge of the Regulatory framework; the SSSC Codes of Practice and the Health and Social Care Standards both in principle and practice.
- You will ensure that team members have up to date knowledge and understanding of Enable's policies and procedures including discussion on how policy and procedures relate to every day practice.
- You will take the lead on ensuring team members are appropriately assessed for their learning and development needs.
- You will ensure the planning and attendance of identified training events or opportunities. This will include mandatory training and may extend to bespoke learning and development opportunities that are designed around the specific needs of the supported person where identified.
- Through your facilitative management style, you will motivate, coach and mentor teams to develop their practice skills and knowledge through induction and beyond.
- You will encourage and support team members in accordance with Enable's Supervision and Appraisal process, analysing their performance development in line with outcome delivery, internal policy and procedures and the regulatory framework.
- You will promote your own learning and development through the productive use of your own supervision, colleagues, internal and external resources to continually reflect upon and develop your skills and practice.

Organisational Service Delivery Responsibilities

- Using information contained in the service design and support plan, you will assist the team to plan the support necessary to deliver on outcomes. You will ensure that each team shares this vision and direction, developing effective support strategies and methods of reviewing progress for the supported person.

- You will ensure that all team members have an in-depth and up to date knowledge of the individuals' support strategies and encourage their committed involvement within this.
- As Team Facilitator, you will ensure that decision making is as close to the person as possible detailing the decision making requirements of the person and their family / significant others. You will ensure that team members are clear on the scope and parameters of their own decision making in relation to the person's life and support.
- You will model good communication skills and have a sound understanding of appropriate relationships with people we support and their families and the ability to lead the guidance for support teams on this issue.
- You will build the capacity of support teams to take the lead on ensuring individual rotas meet the needs of the supported person in a way that is flexible and responsive to changing need and lifestyle aspirations.
- You will maintain an overview and accountability as Team Facilitator of rota management whilst ensuring the full involvement of the support team. This will include assisting the team to utilise the resources available to plan ahead for team member annual leave and training absence - and to think broadly in accessing community resources, friends and other everyday support mechanisms.
- You will encourage the support team to take a considered and positive approach to risk in order to support people's engagement in supported or independent activities, whilst ensuring that any risk is assessed appropriately involving key people in the person's life.
- You will maintain contact and spend specific allocated time with people we support in order to ensure that they are happy with their service and that practice is meeting their expectations. Team Facilitator time with the supported person will be used specifically for quality assurance purposes ensuring that all processes are in place and meet the standards required for internal and external regulatory compliance.
- You will take the lead on the review process ensuring the involvement of the supported person, their families/significant others and the professionals involved in their lives. You will ensure the meetings will provide opportunity to share and gather information which will be used to achieve the person's outcomes.
- You will have responsibility for monitoring team member levels, following the recruitment and interview process as necessary. You will ensure the involvement of the person we support and their families/significant others in the personalised recruitment and induction of team members.
- You will foster a culture of responsible leadership. This will include the management of sickness / other absence in line with a planned approach for appropriate team level cover. You will work with team members to ensure that any absence does not compromise the continuity or quality of the support service.

Other, Role Specific Responsibilities:

- To work alongside people we support, families, Team Facilitators, Personal Assistants and others in providing guidance and ensuring consistency and quality of support embedding standards such as the SSSC Codes of Practice and the Health and Social Care Standards.
- You will work closely with the Regional Manager to ensure overall area development; and that national strategic objectives and work streams are met effectively within the locality.
